

Pictures of new natural Arabidopsis thaliana populations from different altitudes of the Pyrenees Mountains growth at two temperature condition (15 and 22°C). Phenotypic plasticity of this model plant was study in the associated article. Pictures credited by Harold Duruflé with lab dispositif.